This is one of our favorite festivals. Great music, rides, food, and people. Come on out and bring the kids, we like kids.

We look forward to seeing everyone again. Many have become good friends over the past 5 years. Thank you for your continued support. It wouldn't happen without you!

Keep checking the website, at www.kcbluesband.com as gigs sometimes come up with little notice.

KC: KONEHEAD CROONER

Kevin loves his on-line school, and is more than happy to do interviews and commercials for it. Click on this link to view the most recent TV/Radio commercial for Primavera Online High: http://www.gothighschool.com/News/Spot_2.html We're all just hoping he doesn't get a big head.

ONE COOL CAT.....

This bad blues cat is appearing nightly at Tin Pan Alley in Chandler....

Want more Spinal Tap? We thought so.

Marty DiBergi: Now, during the Flower People period, who was your drummer?

David St. Hubbins: Stumpy's replacement, Peter James Bond. He also died in mysterious circumstances. We were playing a, uh...

Nigel Tufnel: ...Festival.

David St. Hubbins: Jazz blues festival. Where was that?

Nigel Tufnel: Blues jazz, really.

Derek Smalls: Blues jazz festival. Misnamed.

Nigel Tufnel: It was in the Isle of, uh...

David St. Hubbins: Isle of Lucy. The Isle of Lucy jazz and blues festival.

Nigel Tufnel: And, uh, it was tragic, really. He exploded on stage.

Derek Smalls: Just like that.

David St. Hubbins: He just went up.

Nigel Tufnel: He just was like a flash of green light... And that was it. Nothing was left.

David St. Hubbins: Look at his face.

Nigel Tufnel: Well, there was...

David St. Hubbins: It's true, this really did happen.

Nigel Tufnel: It's true. There was a little green globule on his drum seat.

David St. Hubbins: Like a stain, really.

Nigel Tufnel: It was more of a stain than a globule, actually.

David St. Hubbins: You know, several, you know, dozens of people spontaneously combust each year. It's just not really widely reported.
