

KC BLUES BAND

"Blues News"

August 1st, 2008 Edition

AUGUST GIGS: The KC Blues Band will be performing at Desert Ridge Marketplace, located at the 101 and Tatum Blvd., Phoenix <http://www.shopdesertridge.com/index.aspx> Saturday, August 30th, from 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm. We hope you all can make it out. This will be a fun evening, including shopping, food, drinks and really great blues music!! Keep checking the website, you never know where we might show up. www.kcbluesband.com

QUOTES OF THE MONTH:

"Santino, never tell anybody outside the family what you're thinking again."

"I have a sentimental weakness for my children and I spoil them, as you can see. They talk when they should be listening."

"It makes no difference to me what a man does for a living, you understand."

"Leave the gun. Take the cannoli."

I'm gonna make him an offer he can't refuse.

(You guessed it, from the movie "The Godfather")

If you haven't picked up your copy of our debut album "Perfectly Toasted Blues" just go on line to www.kcbluesband.com and click on "ORDER HERE". Your CD will be in your mail box in just a few days.

CONCERT NEWS: Steve Miller Band + Joe Cocker, Friday, August 8th, 2008, Dodge Theatre, Phoenix 7:30 pm.

JOKES OF THE MONTH:

Now, here's one, imagine if Dear Abby was Dear Bob:

Dear Bob,

Q: My husband has way too many nights out with the boys, what should I do?

A: This is perfectly natural behavior - and it should be encouraged. The man is a hunter and he needs to prove his prowess with other men. Far from being pleasurable, a night out with the boys is a stressful affair, and to get back to you is a relief for your partner. Just look back at how emotional and happy the man is when he returns to his stable home. Best thing to do is to buy him a nice, expensive present, and cook him a nice meal and don't mention this aspect of his behavior.

WE LIKE THIS GUY!

Alright, we won't make you beg for more "Spinal Tap" this month. Here ya go:

Nigel: There's a problem here, I don't even know where to start.

Ian: Sound Check?

Nigel: No no no no, look – look this – miniature bread, its like, I've been working with this for about a half an hour now – I can't figure out... You've got this –

Ian: You'd like bigger bread?

Nigel: Exactly! I don't understand how...

Ian: You could just fold it though....

Nigel: Well no, then its half the size.

Ian: Fold the meat.

Nigel: Yeah, then it breaks apart like this.

Ian: Well, no put it on the bread like this...see?

Nigel: But then if you keep folding it, it keeps breaking.

Ian: Why would you keep folding it?

Nigel: Everything has to be folded – and then it's this, and I don't want this.

I want large bread so that I can put this, so then it's like this, but then this doesn't work, cuz then its all –

Ian: Cuz it hangs out like that.

Nigel: Look, would you be holding this?

Ian: No I wouldn't want to eat that.

Nigel: Alright exhibit A, then we move onto this – look- look who's in here, (pointing to an olive) no one, and then in here there's a little guy. It's a complete catastrophe!

Ian: No, no you're right.

Nigel: No really, its no big deal, it's a joke, it's a joke.

Ian: I really don't want it to affect your performance.

Nigel: Its not going to affect my performance, don't worry about it alright, it does disturb me, but I rise above it, I'm a professional.

Please visit our website at www.kcbluesband.com and sign our guest book if you haven't already. You can also listen to some of our new music off our album "Perfectly Toasted Blues" by going to www.myspace.com/kcbluesband. Thank you for supporting the KC Blues Band.

Picture of the month:

KC Blues Band bringing down the house at the Phoenix Music Award Showcase, at the SKYE, in Peoria. Left to right: Jim Riccitelli, Rich Arnold, Kevin Casenhiser, Stevie Ray Ellis, and our newest member, Gary Riso on bass.

