"Blues News"

February 1st, 2008 Edition

FEBRUARY GIGS: Friday, February 1st, KC will be doing a solo performance at Seton Catholic High in Chandler (this is a private event).

Friday, February 22nd, KC will be performing solo from 8:00 pm to 10:00 pm at NYC Mobsters, Inc. at the Southwest corner of Williams Field Road and Val Vista, in Gilbert. This is a family place, so feel free to bring the kids.

Hey, how about this. NYC Mobsters has booked the whole KC Blues Band to perform on Friday, February 29th from 8:00 pm to 11:00 pm. We will have Greg Blumenthal on bass, Pete Avelar on drums, Jim Riccitelli on keys and of course KC on guitar. Come on down for some great Italian food and blues music. This will be lots of fun!!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, April 12th from 11:20 am to 12:20 pm. The KC Blues Band will be cranking' it up to "11" at the Glendale Jazz & Blues Festival!

Don't forget to keep checking the web site at www.kcbluesband.com - you never know where we might show up!

The Hawk can now kick back and enjoy a little free time, because he has finished the KC Blues Band's debut album!! "Perfectly Toasted Blues" sounds awesome and you can go on line to order your copy at www.kcbluesband.com - just click on "Order Here". It will be delivered right to your mail box in just a few days - then you can kick back and enjoy listening to some perfectly toasted blues!!

BLUES BLAST: Saturday, February 23rd is the Annual Blues Blast hosted by the Phoenix Blues Society. Check out their web site for the lineup and more info at www.bluesblast.info. Kids under 12 are free. Bring your lawn chair, blanket and sunscreen. This is always a good time!

THE MAGIC WORDS: 3 Instant Get-Out-Of-Jail-Free Cards

When a woman is so mad at you that she just about wants to kill you, you have one thing going for you: deep down, a tiny part of her wants you to make her not do it. She just might put down the apple slicer if you say one of the following sentences:

"Just tell me everything." I don't think a man has ever actually uttered this statement, so make history. Here's the thing: her most violent anger is often the result of her anticipating being told to shut up. So once she is told she can give her entire, endless account - no rushing or defending herself - she will cool off.

"You are just so beautiful." The trick: you must say it as if it's just occurring to you at the moment, as if her pulchritude were a rainbow suddenly in your path, the stunningness of which has left you incapacitated, emotionally stunted, but in a good way. Say it as if you can remember little else - certainly not whatever irksome matter you were just discussing. Works well as an alternative to "I love you" - but, in the same way butter makes anything taste better, it's all-purpose.

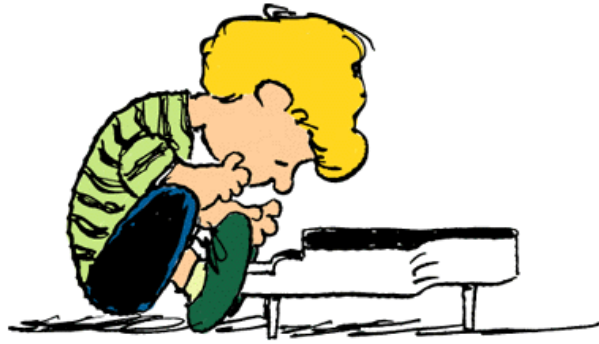

"Sorry. It was all my fault." So classic. So hard to say. Because it's never all your fault, of course - and it's a very rare case in which she shouldn't also say she's sorry. Everyone likes to save face, especially men. But truly, there is nothing hotter to a woman than a man who's willing to admit he was wrong because he just loves her so damn much. You might feel like you're losing her respect, but unless you're always the one to apologize (which means you have a crazy lady on your hands), you're gaining it.

Happy Valentine's Day!

QUOTE OF THE MONTH: The music field was the first to break down racial barriers, because in order to play together, you have to love the people you are playing with, and if you have any racial inhibitions, you wouldn't be able to do that. I play as I feel. (Oscar Peterson - famous Canadian Jazz Pianist - born 8-15-25 died 12-23-07)

Please visit our website at www.kcbluesband.com and sign our guest book if you haven't already. You can also listen to some of our new music off the album, "Perfectly Toasted Blues" by going to www.myspace.com/kcbluesband. Thank you for supporting the KC Blues Band.
