

KC Blues Band

"Blues News"

January 1st, 2008 Edition

JANUARY GIGS: Friday, January 11th and Friday, January 25th, KC will be performing solo from 8:00 pm to 10:00 pm at NYC Mobsters, Inc., at the Southwest corner of Williams Field Road and Val Vista, in Gilbert. It is a really cool place - come on down and check it out - you will LOVE it - delicious Italian food, great service, and blues music!! www.nycmobstersinc.com

Saturday, January 12th, from 9:00 pm until 11:00 pm, the KC Blues Band will be turning it up a notch at Iguana Macks, located at 1371 N. Alma School Road (between Ray and Warner) in Chandler.

Sunday, January 20th, from noon to 6:00 pm, come on down to Alice Cooperstown in Phoenix. Check the web site for KC's time spot with some jamming blues bands. This is a benefit show for BIG Daddy D & the Dynamites to help raise $ for their trip to Memphis.

Keep checking the web site, at www.kcbluesband.com as gigs sometimes come up with little notice.

We've got some great new additions we would like to welcome to the band. Rich Arnold on sax, Pete Avelar on drums and backing vocals, Greg Blumenthal ("Heavy G") on bass and backing vocals, and Mike Morris on Harp. We are very excited to have all of them join the band and could not ask for nicer guys! Wow, sax, harp, guitar, drums, bass and keys, what a fantastic bunch of musicians!

We have some mind blowing, rip-roaring news about our debut album, "Perfectly Toasted Blues"Yep, you guessed it Jim, our Perfectly Toasted Producer, has completed it!! Whoo Hoo!! It sounds awesome and everyone did a fantastic job. A few weeks from now, copies will be rolling off the press, so order your copy now!! Just click on "Order your CD" on our website www.kcbluesband.com, fill out the order form and sit back and wait for your Perfectly Toasted Blues CD to arrive in the mail.

Here's a tasty blues quote to start off the New Year:

Mrs. Murphy: Help you two?

Elwood: Do you have any white bread ma'am?

Mrs. Murphy: Yeah.

Elwood: I'll have some toasted white bread please.

Mrs. Murphy: You want butter or jam on that, honey?

Elwood: No ma'am, dry.

Jake: Do you have any fried chicken ma'am?

Mrs. Murphy: Best damned chicken in the state.

Jake: Bring me four fried chickens and a Coke.

Mrs. Murphy: You want chicken wings or chicken legs?

Jake: Four fried chickens and a Coke.

Elwood: And some dry white toast please.

Mrs. Murphy: Ya'all want anything to drink with that?

Elwood: No ma'am.

Jake: A Coke.

Mrs. Murphy: Be right back.

OUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION: We've got to rub that weight...pass that weight, squeeze that weight, we've got to lose that weight.... Not a chance....our real resolution is that we're planning on turning it up to "11" in 2008!!! We hope to be doing a lot of really BIG festivals and shows. Hope to see everyone there!!

Alice Cooper's Christmas Pudding show at the Dodge Theater last month was a huge success!! Over $125,000 was raised for the Rock Teen Center. www.alicecoopersolidrock.com
You ROCK Alice!!

Hey, this is pretty neat...go to www.mystudio.net and check out KC!!

Please visit our website at www.kcbluesband.com and sign our guest book if you haven't already. And please help us spread the word! Tell your friends to sign up for the Newsletter, and your comments are greatly appreciated! Yes, Janeen, we'd love to hear from you too...(is she in the band?). Thank you for supporting the KC Blues Band. Have a very Happy New Year!!

This photo is of John, Jason and KC, jamming at Pesto's in Chandler on KC's 15th birthday. John is KC's guitar teacher and Jason is a friend who also teaches music. You can catch these two great guys in the lounge at Pesto's every Wednesday night!
