"Blues News"

October 1st, 2009 Edition

OCTOBER GIGS: On Saturday, October 3rd, the KC Blues Band will perform at the Tempe Oktoberfest at Tempe Town Lake, Mill Ave. and 5th St. Look for us on the "Beers of the World" Stage from 2:30 pm to 5:00 pm. This festival is lots of fun and it's free to get in. There is a great line up of music this year, food booths, rides, and did we mention we're playing next to the beer garden? This is KC's 6th appearance at the Tempe Oktoberfest. KC did a solo performance when he was 11 yrs old on the family stage. There is free admission and free entertainment on four stages. Without a doubt, this is the best Oktoberfest music lineup ever. Country/rock cover band Mogollon returns for the 17th year and will headline Saturday night and Sunday. Also returning will be Furious George, the Chris Parker Project and the KC Blues Band. Rhythm and blues fans rejoice! Cold Shott and the Hurricane Horns will close on Friday and Saturday night. On Saturday, Repeat Offenders will pair with The Horns for six hours of high energy R&B. Arizona Blues Hall of Fame inductees Rockett 88s, The Delrayz and another band (to be determined) will play the Beers of the World Stage Sunday from 11:00 am until 6:00 pm. Added this year is the 16-band Garage Band competition – happening across all three days. www.tempeoktoberfest.com

October 4th is our drummer's birthday. No one knows his real age, but we're all guessing thirty something. Happy Birthday Dave!

B.B. King turned 84 last month and he's still touring. B.B. will be in town, November 21st, at the Celebrity Theater, Phoenix, AZ.

Joke Of The Month:

"How come you're late?" asked the bartender, as the blonde waitress walked into the bar. "It was awful," she explained. "I was walking down Elm Street and there was a terrible accident. A man was thrown from his car and he was lying in the middle of the street. His leg was broken, his skull was fractured, and there was blood everywhere. Thank God I took that first-aid course." "Wow! What did you do?" asked the bartender. "I sat down and put my head between my knees to keep from fainting!"
